Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 2-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 2 it is said the difference between the first diapers and the number of the second diapers is in a range of 0 to +/- 3. However, this contradicts claim 1 where the number of first diapers is equal to the number of the second diapers and therefore the range is not supported.

In claims 3 and 4, said groups has no antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Japan Patent Abstract 2000-042028 (cited by applicant) in view of Bauer et al (Patent no. 5,971,153). Japan Patent Abstract 2000-042028 discloses a packaged assembly as recited in claim except that the waist regions of all the diapers face the same side wall of the package. However, Bauer et al teaches a manner of arranging diapers in figure 9 where the sides are alternated. Which manifestly provides a more compact arrangement as shown in the figure.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the package of Japan Patent Abstract 2000-042028 by arranging the respective waist regions facing to a first side wall of said the package and second diapers each having a waist-surrounding end portions of the respective waist regions facing to a second side wall of said package as taught by Bauer et al, in order to form a more compact, space saving package. The plurality of diapers stacked in the vertical direction of Bauer figure 9 constitute a group in which the number of a first diapers is equal to the number of said second diapers.

As to claim 2, the difference between the diapers of Bauer et al figure 9 is zero, within the claimed range.

As to claim 3, at least two groups are shown in figure 12 of Bauer et al.

As to claim 4, two groups packaged side-by-side within a package 30 is shown in figure 5.

REPLY BY APPLICANT OR PATENT OWNER TO THIS OFFICE ACTION

5. “In order to be entitled to reconsideration or further examination, the applicant or patent owner must reply to every ground of objection and rejection in this Office action. The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. The applicant’s or patent owner’s reply must appear throughout to be a bona fide attempt to advance the application or the reexamination proceeding to final action. A general allegation that the claims define a patentable invention without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. The reply must be reduced to writing (emphasis added)”, see 37 CFR 1.111 (b) & (c), M.P.E.P. 714.02.

Pointing out specific distinctions means clearly indicating in the written response what features/elements or distinctions have been added to the claim/claims, where support is found in the specification for such recitations and how these features are not shown, taught, obvious or inherent in the prior art.

If no amendments are made to claims as applicant or patent owner believes the claims are patentable without further modification, the reply must distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the examiner’s action and must respond to every ground of objection and rejection in the prior Office Action in the same vain as given above, 37 CFR 1.111 (b) & (c), M.P.E.P. 714.02.

Art Unit: 3728

The examiner also points out, due to the change in practice as affecting final rejections, older decisions on questions of prematureness of final rejection or admission of subsequent amendments do not necessarily reflect present practice. "Under present practice, second or any subsequent actions on the merits shall be final, except where the examiner introduces a new ground of rejection that is neither necessitated by applicant's amendment of the claims nor based on information submitted in an information disclosure statement filed during the period set forth in 37 CFR 1.97(c)" (emphasis mine), see MPEP 706.07(a).
